

Total Goals Statistics by League

User Profile

The user of this report is expected to be soccer fans. Soccer fans could see their beloved team's league's match statistics, aggregated by meetings with another team (away team).

Most soccer fans are bound to a specific team playing at only 1 league. This tends to make fans have a pride for the league of their beloved team itself. Not only that, some leagues are deemed more elite than other leagues, and one key indicators may include the productivity of goals in that league. More goals tend to mean more interesting matches, and this serves as one indicator of the league's quality.
